BOB NUTTING

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

ROBERT (BOB) NUTTING serves as Chairman of the Board of the Pittsburgh Pirates. Nutting assumed control of the club in 2007, thus becoming the sixth principal owner in the history of the Pittsburgh Pirates. He has served as Chairman of the Board and represented his family's interest in the club since 2003.

Under Nutting's leadership, the organization is stronger than it has been in decades both on and off the field.

On the Major League level, the Pirates reached the Postseason for the second straight season in 2014, which marked the sixth time since divisional play began in 1969 for the team to make back-to-back Postseason appearances. The overall talent within the farm system, once again, ranks near the top in all of Major League Baseball.

Nutting now serves on the MLB Executive Council, an eight-member committee of owners advising Commissioner Rob Manfred on the most critical issues facing the game today. In addition, Nutting serves on the MLB Investment Committee and Chairs the Ownership Committee. In 2014, Nutting was selected by then Commissioner Bud Selig to serve on the seven-member succession committee to identify and recommend candidates to be considered to serve as Commissioner Selig's successor.

Nutting has also demonstrated his commitment to providing Pirates players with the best of class facilities. In 2015, the Pirates unveiled a state of the art performance center at Pirate City and the home clubhouse at McKechnie Field - the Pirates Spring Training facilities Bradenton, FL. His tenure has also included the construction of the Pirates Latin American headquarters and training academy in the Dominican Republic.

In Pittsburgh, Nutting has worked to ensure that Pittsburgh remains home to "The Best Ballpark in America" by enhancing and promoting the family friendly environment at PNC Park through numerous upgrades and new amenities at the ballpark.

Nutting's family roots in the greater Pittsburgh region date back as long as the Pirates 128-year history. His dedication to giving back to the community in every aspect of his life has brought a newfound philanthropic commitment to the organization.

Nutting has led Pirates Charities, the Club's official philanthropic arm, in making an even deeper, positive impact off the field by being actively engaged the community. Pirates Charities is focused on the core pillars of improving youth health, fitness and education, along with supporting those affected by cancer and supporting military personnel and their families. Overall, the Pirates and Pirates Charities, support more than 3,000 community organizations each year.

An avid outdoorsman and conservationist, Nutting is a driving force behind the Pirates award-winning "Let's Go Bucs. Let's Go Green." initiative to make PNC Park operations more environmentally friendly. The program has been widely recognized as one of the best in professional sports.

Nutting brings a long history of building successful organizations and a multi-generational commitment to the economic growth in the Pittsburgh region. He also serves as President and CEO of Ogden Newspapers, Inc., and Chairman of Seven Springs Mountain Resort.

PIRATES CHARITIES: 2014 PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

MIRACLE LEAGUE

Pirates Charities hosted a record five Miracle League Fantasy Camps in 2014. Sponsored by Baseball Fantasy Camp for Kids, these events let kids with special needs participate in a half-day Fantasy Camp with Pirates players, coaches, alumni and mascots. Camps took place at Pirates Charities-supported Miracle League Fields in Sarasota, FL; South Hills, PA; Murrysville, PA; Altoona, PA; and Wheeling, WV.

In 2015, Pirates Charities will participate in the Grand Opening of the Miracle League of Indiana County. The Pirates Charities Miracle League Field of the South Hills will also debut a new feature this year—an inclusive playground for children with and without disabilities to play together. The playground will be located adjacent to their own Miracle League baseball field.

FIELDS FOR KIDS

Now in its fifth year, the Pirates Charities Fields for Kids program has contributed more than $874,000 to local youth baseball and softball organizations to improve their fields and facilities.

The program is supported by a generous grant from the Grable Foundation. In 2014, 45 individual grants were distributed.

Pirates Charities also helped make the Blackstone Park Palmetto Little League Complex in Manatee County, FL a reality with a contribution of $75,000. The complex, featuring three little league fields, opened in 2014 and includes a new parking lot, concession building, covered bleachers and many other amenities.

FANTASY BASEBALL

More than 70 students from schools and after-school programs participated in the third annual Pittsburgh Regional Fantasy Baseball World Series, representing over 800 kids who participated in the Fantasy Baseball Math Program in 2014.

Pirates General Manager Neal Huntington and his wife Becca support this program, helping kids learn math through baseball statistics and prepare for state exams.

REVIVING BASEBALL IN INNER CITIES

Pittsburgh RBI (Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities), run under the auspices of the Boys and Girls Clubs of Western PA, provides baseball and softball programming to over 1,000 Boys and Girls ages 6-18. The mission of the Pittsburgh RBI program is to increase participation and interest in baseball and softball among underserved youth through instruction and competitive play, while encouraging youth to achieve academically, demonstrate good sportsmanship and contribute positively to the community.

In 2014, Pirates Charities provided financial and in-kind support to RBI. This included Coaches Clinics led by Pirates alumni Grant Jackson, Chris Peters and John Wehner; a softball clinic conducted by Pirates ball girls; educational seminars provided by KPMG; RBI Scholarships for tournaments and clinics; and a Q&A session for RBI coaches, led by Pirates General Manager Neal Huntington. Two local RBI teams participated in the 2014 RBI Regional Tournament in Cleveland.

BRADENTON RBI

Pirates Charities and the Bradenton Marauders, the Pirates minor league affiliate, support the Bradenton RBI program in a variety of ways. Donations included uniforms, equipment, Pirates promotional items and transportation to the RBI Regional Tournament held in Atlanta.

The Marauders players assist RBI coaches during the season and oftentimes, Bradenton RBI teams enjoy using the Pirate City fields for games and practices. Pirate City also hosts an annual holiday party for RBI participants to celebrate their season.

CLEMENTE DAY

In conjunction with MLB's Annual Clemente Day Celebration on September 17, 2014, Pirates Charities partnered with the Pittsburgh Promise to select Pittsburgh Public Schools' Banksville Elementary to benefit from a contribution of $40,000 worth of needed school supplies that included Apple TVs, books, recreation equipment and more.

The entire Pirates team and coaching staff delivered the supplies during an assembly that included a "Science of Baseball" demonstration by the Carnegie Science Center. Students also heard from members of the Clemente Family about the legacy of Hall-of-Famer Roberto Clemente, who stressed the importance of giving back and making a difference in the lives of others. Lunch was provided for all the kids by Pirates partner Chick-fil-A.

In the spirit of Clemente Day, Pirates Charities launched the "Adopt-a-School" program in Bradenton and Manatee County, Florida, contributing over $20,000 worth of books and supplies to Myakka, Rogers Garden and Wakeland Elementary schools. Program partners included Manatee Education Foundation and The Mosaic Company. An additional $5,000 was contributed to Ward Temple Methodist Episcopal Church in support of after school programming.

SU2C [STAND UP 2 CANCER]

Stand Up To Cancer's (SU2C) mission is to raise funds to accelerate the pace of groundbreaking translational research that can get new therapies to patients quickly and save lives now.

SU2C brings together the best and the brightest researchers and mandates collaboration among the cancer community. By galvanizing the entertainment industry, SU2C has set out to generate awareness, educate the public on cancer prevention and help more people diagnosed with cancer become long-term survivors.

Pirates Charities invited Pirates fans to help raise money and awareness for cancer research during Stand Up 2 Cancer (SU2C) night at PNC Park on Friday, August 8.

During the game, all fans held up SU2C cheer cards, donated by Trib Total Media, in support of loved ones affected by cancer. Pirates Charities raised $25,000 for SU2C that night.

MILITARY SUPPORT

Thanks to the success of the Pirates Charities ROOT Sports Auction, funding was contributed to organizations providing support to soldiers, veterans and their families. Operation Troop Appreciation, Wounded Warrior Project and Veterans Leadership Program of Western PA each received a contribution of $80,000.

In conjunction with the ROOT Sports Auction, the Pirates partnered with GovX to present Military Appreciation Night at PNC Park. More than 10,000 free tickets were distributed to veterans and active servicemen and women to provide a night of enjoyment in recognition of their service.

Through this fund they hope to raise awareness of ALS, provide care and comfort to ALS families in Western Pennsylvania, and support scientific research targeted at finding a cure. The fund was named for baseball great Lou Gehrig to honor the example he set for all people living with ALS.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH: PLAYER INVOLVEMENT

CLINT HURDLE

Pirates Manager Clint Hurdle and his wife, Karla, support charitable efforts in Pittsburgh and nationally. In addition to serving as the official spokesman for the Prader Willi Syndrome Association (PWSA), Clint supports local families through Wins for Kids, which raises money for the Children's Institute of Pittsburgh's Prader Willi Syndrome Program.

In 2014, Wins for Kids raised more than $53,000 for this cause that is near and dear to the Hurdle family. Clint also hosted a group of kids from PWSA for a special pre-game baseball clinic on Sunday, September 14 at PNC Park.

In September, Clint hosted guests from Urban Impact to batting practice and donated a PNC Park Luxury Suite – complete with all the amenities – for them to enjoy the game.

In recognition of his outstanding community commitment, the Major League Baseball Players Alumni Association named Clint Hurdle the 2014 Brooks Robinson Community Service Award Winner. The Brooks Robinson Community Service Award is given annually by the MLBPAA to a current or former Major Leaguer whose community service exemplifies the unselfish and humble attitude of Brooks Robinson, bettering the lives of the youth in his community.

ANDREW McCUTCHEN

Andrew McCutchen proudly supports Pittsburgh non-profits by raising money through "Cutch's Crew," a Pittsburgh Marathon team. Members of Cutch's Crew hosted events during the season to raise money for Pirates Charities, and Andrew designates the funds that are raised to local organizations. He also participated in the Kids Marathon, congratulating the kids as they crossed the finish line.

Andrew also helps provide special experiences for kids with life-threatening illnesses through the Make-a-Wish Foundation. Three kids wished to meet their hero, Cutch, in 2014, and he made each wish a reality.

CHARLIE MORTON

Pitcher Charlie Morton, a long-time supporter of our military, continued his efforts in 2014, beginning in spring training. Charlie hosted a tailgate for members of our military through the Patterson Foundation's Legacy of Valor Initiative. Veterans and service members from Wounded Warrior Project and Team Red, White and Blue were treated to batting practice, a family picnic and an on-field recognition ceremony prior to a Pirates game in Bradenton, FL.

Charlie also treated veterans from Wounded Warrior Project to a night at the ballpark in a PNC Park Suite.

CLEMENTE AWARD

In recognition of his active community service, Charlie Morton was the Pirates' 2014 Roberto Clemente Award nominee.

Each team nominates one player for this MLB-wide award that is given to a player who demonstrates the values Clemente displayed in his commitment to community and understanding the value of helping others.

NEIL WALKER

Neil Walker helped generate awareness for a number of non-profit causes during the 2014 season. He served as co-chair of the Pirates Charities Golf Classic, and designated a portion of the event's proceeds to Animal Friends. Neil and his wife, Niki, visited Animal Friends to deliver the donation and helped raise even more funds for the non-profit by signing autographs and taking photos with fans in exchange for donations.

Neil once again served as a co-chair for the Players for Kids gala, which raises money for the Pittsburgh Kids Foundation. He was joined by players from the Pittsburgh Steelers and Penguins as well as several Pirates teammates.

CARE-A-VAN

The 2014 Pirates Charities CARE-a-van, presented by Highmark, visited 15 cities over three days to make a significant impact in surrounding Pittsburgh communities. Pirates players, coaches and broadcasters took part in more than 25 community events at area non-profits and schools throughout western Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia.

PIRATES FAITH NIGHT

On Thursday, June 26, members of the Pirates team stayed after the Pirates vs. Mets game to share their faith with fans in attendance. All fans were welcome to come into the stands near the Pirates dugout, and players and coaches took turns speaking to the crowd and answering questions about what their faith means to them.

PIRATES COMMUNITY COMMITMENT PROGRAM

The Pirates Community Commitment Program (PCCP) is an organization-wide community service program for Pirates Minor League Players that promotes community service and awareness, and provides benefit to the community, the individual player and the Pirates organization. Every minor league player is required to complete a minimum of 10 hours of community service during their playing season.

Near the conclusion of each team's regular season, each of the Pirates minor league teams selects one player from its organization to receive the "Pirates Community Commitment Award." Honorees travel to Pittsburgh, where they are recognized in a special pregame, on-field ceremony held on Clemente Day. The Pirates Charities 50/50 raffle from that day's game was contributed to the Foundation for Dreams in memory of Evan Chambers, an outfielder in the Pirates minor league system who tragically passed away at the age of 24.

DOMINICAN REPUBLIC HIGH SCHOOL EDUCATION PROGRAM

Estorga, Dominican Republic is home to the Pittsburgh Pirates Latin American Headquarters. The team's commitment to improving the lives of local communities extends to this region as the Pirates host a group of local children for a holiday party at the Dominican facility. Kids there are treated to a ballpark picnic, receive Pirates gifts and get to play ball with the pros.

The Pirates also work to improve the lives of Dominican players by providing educational opportunities. In the Dominican Republic, many are unable to finish traditional schooling, some dropping out as early as 3rd grade due to a lack of federal regulations for schooling. The Pirates provide individualized education programs for players at the Dominican academy, and in 2014, nine players received a Dominican High School Diploma. This was the fifth consecutive High School Graduation at the academy.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH: GREEN INITIATIVES

LET'S GO BUCS, LET'S GO GREEN

The Pirates are committed to sustainable practices by focusing on three key elements – recycling, conservation and awareness. The Pirates "Let's Go Bucs. Let's Go Green" program integrates greening initiatives, sustainable business practices and educational outreach throughout the Pirates organization and the PNC Park facility.

Hurdle led the Pirates to the postseason for the second consecutive season in 2014, posting the fourth-best record overall in the N.L. (88-74) and the second-best mark (78-56) after May 1.

For his efforts in 2014, Hurdle finished second in the voting for N.L. Manager-of-the-Year by the BBWAA; he received 80 points, 29 behind the winner - Washington's Matt Williams.

During the 2014 campaign, Clint picked up his 800th career managerial victory on May 23 and was a member of Mike Matheny's coaching staff at the All-Star Game in Minnesota.

Hurdle was named the 2013 National League Manager-of-the-Year by the BBWAA after leading the Pirates to a 94-68 record and their first postseason berth since 1992. He received 25 first-place votes and was listed second on the other five ballots, as well as being the only manager in either league named on all 30 ballots. Hurdle was just the second Pittsburgh manager to win the award, joining Jim Leyland, who won in 1990 and 1992.

Hurdle also captured Manager-of-the-Year honors from The Sporting News in 2013, joining Billy Meyer (1948), Danny Murtaugh (1960, 1970) and Jim Leyland (1988, 1990, 1992) as past winners in club history.

In his first four seasons as the Bucco skipper, Hurdle has posted a 333-315 record. The 333 victories are the most by a Pittsburgh manager in his first four full seasons since Chuck Tanner won 365 games from 1977-80. In addition, Hurdle enters the 2015 season ranked fifth in wins among active managers (867).

Hurdle spent the 2010 season as the Hitting Coach of the American League champion Texas Rangers, a club that led the Major Leagues with a .276 batting average during the regular season - paced by A.L. MVP Josh Hamilton (.359 average, 32 home runs and 100 RBI) and Vladimir Guerrero (.300 average, 29 home runs and 115 RBI).

Prior to joining the Texas coaching staff on November 5, 2009, Hurdle spent over 15 years in the Colorado organization, serving as a minor league hitting coordinator, Major League hitting coach and manager at the big league level. He compiled a 543-625 record while serving the Rockies as manager from April 26, 2002, until he was relieved of his duties on May 29, 2009. Clint has the most wins of any manager in Colorado team history, winning his 500th career game on August 29, 2008 at Los Angeles.

In 2007, Hurdle led the Rockies to the World Series as the club captured its first National League pennant in franchise history. The 2007 club, which won 11 straight games in September, won 21 of its 22 games leading up to the World Series, where Boston pulled off a four-game sweep. During the 2007 post season, the Rockies swept the Phillies in the Division Series and Arizona in the Championship Series before falling to the Red Sox in the Fall Classic.

For the fourth year, the Hurdles spearheaded the "Wins for Kids" program to raise money for the Prader Willi Program at the Children's Institute of Pittsburgh

For his efforts in 2007, Hurdle received four first-place votes and finished third in the voting for N.L. Manager-of-the-Year. His '07 squad also compiled the highest single-season fielding pct. in Major League history (.989), a mark that still stands. Clint also served as manager of the National League in the 2008 All-Star Game at Yankee Stadium, the longest game (time, innings) in All-Star history (the N.L. lost 4-3 in 15 innings in a game that lasted 4:50). Hurdle was also a coach for the N.L. staff during the 2004 All-Star Game in Houston.

Hurdle's managerial career at the big league level began with a 4-1 victory over the Phillies at Coors Field on April 26, 2002. He replaced Buddy Bell as Colorado's skipper that day and went 6-0 in his first six games - tied for the sixth-best winning streak by a manager following a mid-season managerial change in Major League history (Joe Morgan holds the record as his Red Sox won their first 12 games in 1988).

In his five-plus years tutoring Colorado's hitters, the club compiled the N.L.'s top two averages in 70 years (.294 in 2000 and .292 in 2001) and the league's most base hits since 1930 (1,664 in 2000). In 2001 alone, the Rockies established a Major League record for total bases (2,748) and the N.L. mark for extra-base hits (598). Hurdle, who doubled as the club's First Base Coach from 1997-98, remained on the coaching staff under three different Colorado managers; Don Baylor, Jim Leyland and Buddy Bell. Prior to becoming Hitting Coach in 1997, Clint served the Rockies as their minor league hitting instructor from 1994-96.

Before he joined the Colorado organization, Hurdle managed in the New York Mets system for six seasons (1988-1993) and compiled a 412-418 record. In his first season as a manager, and in St. Lucie's first year of existence, he led the club to a second-half division title and the Florida State League championship. Hurdle also took his 1989 St. Lucie club and the 1990 Jackson team to the post season, losing in the first round of the playoffs each year. After managing Williamsport in the Eastern League in 1991, Clint wrapped up his minor league managerial career with two seasons at the Triple-A level with Tidewater in 1992 and Norfolk in 1993.

Primarily an outfielder during his playing days, Hurdle was selected by Kansas City in the first round (9th player overall) of the 1975 June draft. After three full seasons in the minor leagues, which included American Association

Hurdle made his Major League debut at the age of 20 with the Royals on September 18, 1977

Hurdle played parts of 10 seasons in the Majors with the Royals (1977-1981), Reds (1982), Mets (1983, 1985, 1987) and Cardinals (1986) and compiled a .259 average, 81 doubles, 12 triples, 32 home runs and 193 RBI in 515 games. He appeared in the post season twice with Kansas City, going 3-for-8 with an RBI in four games against the Yankees in the 1978 A.L.C.S., and advancing as far as the World Series in 1980, only to lose in four games to the Phillies.

After spending the 1982 season in the Cincinnati organization, Hurdle was signed by New York as a minor league free agent prior to the 1983 campaign and played three years in the Mets system before being selected by St. Louis in the 1985 Rule 5 Draft. In his final season as a player (1987), Clint appeared in 97 games with Triple-A Tidewater and went 1-for-3 in three games with the Mets. In his big league career, he made 240 appearances in right field, 96 in left field, 92 at first base, 22 at catcher and 15 at third base. Hurdle, who hit the final home run in Minnesota's historical Metropolitan Stadium on 9/30/81, hit his final big league homer on 9/9/86 at Three Rivers Stadium - a solo shot off Pittsburgh's Rick Reuschel.

HITTING COACH

AGE: 48
BORN: 1/26/67 IN WAYNESBORO, MS
RESIDES: UNION, KY

APPOINTED: 12/13/12
POSITION PLAYED: INF

JEFF BRANSON is in his second season as the Pirates Hitting Coach. In 2014 the Pirates ranked second in the National League with a .333 on-base percentage, the club's highest OBP since 2003 (.338), first in walks (520) and fourth with 682 runs scored. The Pirates also ranked fourth among N.L. teams with 461 extra-base hits in 2014 and had nine different players hit at least 10 home runs for the first time in franchise history.

Branson officially joined the Major League coaching staff on December 13, 2012. He was promoted to Hitting Coach prior to the 2014 campaign after working as the assistant hitting coach under Jay Bell in 2013.

Jeff played six of his nine Major League seasons with Cincinnati

Branson is in his 13th season with the Pittsburgh organization and his 26th in professional baseball. Prior to joining the big league staff, he spent a total of four seasons (2009-2012) with the Pirates Triple-A affiliate in Indianapolis.

Following a 14-year playing career, Branson joined the Pirates organization in 2003 as the Hitting Coach with Williamsport in the New York-Penn League. He then managed the Williamsport club in 2004 before serving as manager with Hickory (2005-06) and Lynchburg (2007-08). In his five seasons as a minor league manager, Branson posted a 269-350 (.435) record.

An infielder during his playing days, Branson was selected by Cincinnati in the second round of the 1988 First-Year Player Draft and made his professional debut with Cedar Rapids in 1989. He made his Major League debut with the Reds on April 12, 1992 at Houston and collected his first hit in his fourth big league game on May 2, 1992 vs. Chicago - a double off Mike Morgan as a pinch hitter. Jeff's first Major League home run came on June 12, 1993; a two-run shot off John Smoltz at Fulton County Stadium in Atlanta.

Branson played a total of nine seasons in the big leagues and produced a .246 batting average (383-for-1555), 34 home runs and 156 RBI in 694 games. He appeared in the National League Championship Series with the Reds in 1995 and stole home as part of a double-steal with Lenny Harris in Game Two vs. Atlanta - the first steal of home in N.L.C.S. history.

The Cleveland Indians acquired Branson and left-handed pitcher John Smiley from the Reds in a deal for four players on July 31, 1997, and he played with the Indians in the 1997 World Series. Jeff played his final Major League game with the Dodgers on October 6, 2001, at San Francisco and finished his playing career with Triple-A Las Vegas in 2002.

#16 NICK LEYVA

FIRST BASE COACH

AGE: 61 (TURNS 62 ON AUGUST 16)
BORN: 8/16/53 IN ONTARIO, CA
RESIDES: MESA, AZ

APPOINTED: 11/24/10
POSITION PLAYED: INF

NICK LEYVA has moved across the diamond in 2015 to the First Base coaching box after working four seasons as Manager Clint Hurdle's Third Base Coach. In addition to his role as the First Base Coach, Leyva will once again serve as the club's Infield Coach.

The 2015 season marks Leyva's 39th in professional baseball and his 21st at the Major League level. He spent the 2010 season as the Bench Coach for the Toronto Blue Jays - under Manager Cito Gaston - after working the previous two seasons as Toronto's Third Base Coach.

Nick lending a hand during a Care-A-Van stop.

An infielder during his playing days, Leyva was selected by St. Louis in the 24th round of the 1975 First-Year Player Draft and began his professional career with Class-A Sarasota that summer. After a three-year playing career, which concluded with a stint at Double-A Arkansas in 1977, Leyva began his managerial/coaching career as a manager in the St. Louis farm system with Johnson City in 1977.

In his first six seasons managing in the minor leagues (1978-1983), Leyva posted 350-340 (.507) record and was named the Texas League Manager-of-the-Year in 1983 after guiding Arkansas to a 69-67 record and second-half division title.

Nick served the Cardinals as their First Base Coach at the big league level for two years (1984-85) before moving across the diamond to the third base coaching box for three years. In addition, he managed in the Puerto Rican Winter League for three years, winning the Championship and being named Manager-of-the-Year with Mayaguez in 1986.

After his five seasons as a coach with the Cardinals, the Philadelphia Phillies named Leyva their Manager on October 3, 1988. At 37 years of age at the time, he was the youngest skipper of the Phillies since 1960 (Gene Mauch - 34). Leyva guided the Phillies to a 77-85 record in his second year at the helm, showing a 10-game improvement from his rookie campaign. Philadelphia, however, let Leyva go on April 24, 1991, after he got off to a 4-9 start that season.

Leyva joined the Toronto organization for the first time in 1992 when he was hired to manage Triple-A Syracuse, a position he held for two seasons before serving the Blue Jays as their Third Base Coach from 1994-97. In that time, he also managed Lara in the Venezuelan Winter League in 1995 and 1996.

After working two years in private business, Nick spent seven seasons in the Chicago White Sox organization. He was a manager at the Triple-A level with Charlotte for two seasons prior to being named the Appalachian League Manager-of-the-Year in 2002 after guiding his Bristol club to a 43-25 record and a league title. He also won a Puerto Rican League championship with Mayaguez in 2002, one year after leading Lara to the Venezuelan Winter League championship.

For two years (2003-04), Leyva served the White Sox as their Minor League Infield Instructor before returning to the managerial post with Charlotte in 2005 and Bristol in 2006.

Leyva spent the 2007 season as the Third Base Coach with the Milwaukee Brewers. His last stint as a manager came in 2008 when he spent the first three months in the Mets farm system with Kingsport in the Appalachian League. He guided the K-Mets to a 1-2 record before being named Toronto's Third Base Coach on June 20 that season.

DID YOU KNOW...

The Pirates were involved in three straight 1-0 games in 2014 from September 20-22 for the first time since August 31 to September 1, 1917 (all three games came against the Cardinals; the second game of a double-header on August 31 and both games of a twin-bill on September 1). PIRATES MINOR LEAGUE PITCHER-OF-THE-YEAR TYLER GLASNOW

BASEBALL OPERATIONS

NEAL HUNTINGTON

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

NEAL HUNTINGTON is in his eighth season as the General Manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates. He was appointed to the position on September 25, 2007, thus becoming the 12th G.M. in the history of the club. In his role as Executive Vice President and General Manager, Neal is responsible for the entire baseball operations department, which includes overseeing the Major League club as well as the scouting and player development systems.

During his tenure, Huntington and his staff have systematically restructured how the Pirates evaluate, acquire, develop and retain players and staff members with the goal of building the Pirates into a consistent championship caliber organization. Neal has overseen the rebuilding and reconfiguration of the Pirates front office, scouting and coaching staffs as well as the retooling of the Pirates 40-man roster and minor league system. Those efforts have played a role in the Pirates winning 94 regular season games (fifth-most in MLB) in 2013 and advancing to the postseason in each of the last two years.

In addition, the Pirates are just one of five clubs to make postseason appearances in 2013-2014 (also the Dodgers, Cardinals, Tigers and Athletics).

The Pirates have allocated significant resources into the First-Year Player Draft and toward international amateur talent acquisition which has resulted in the Pirates farm system moving from being one of the worst in MLB to among the best in the game, including a No. 1 ranking by Baseball America entering the 2014 season. Currently ranked as having the seventh-best minor league system by Baseball America, the Pirates are just one of three teams (also the Red Sox and Astros) to be ranked in the top ten in each of the last three years.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Neal worked as a Special Assistant to the General Manager for the 2007 American League Central Division champion Cleveland Indians. In his role as Special Assistant to the General Manager, Huntington served as an evaluator and advisor for Cleveland General Manager Mark Shapiro, providing recommendations regarding personnel, strategic planning and decision making. Neal also scouted major and minor league players and provided recommendations with respect to player evaluation, acquisition and retention. He also provided scouting evaluations on players within the Indians organization while doing advance scouting work for a portion of the Indians' opponents.

Huntington began his association with the Indians in 1998 as the Assistant Director of Minor League operations. In November of 1998, Neal took over as Cleveland's Director of Player Development. In that role he instilled a holistic developmental philosophy that focused on the systematic development of the person as well as the player. He also oversaw the Indians player development system, including Latin American Field Operations. After being promoted to the title of Assistant General Manager on November 1, 2001, Huntington assisted Shapiro in all areas of the day-to-day operation of the major league club, concentrating particularly in player evaluation, acquisition and retention.

Neal began his major league career in the Montreal Expos organization on June 1, 1992. He spent the 1994 campaign as the video advance scout for the Expos major league club and was then promoted to Assistant Director, Player Development after the 1994 season, where he assisted in all aspects of Montreal's Player Development system.

PERSONAL: Neal Alden Huntington...Born on 2/4/69 in Amherst, NH...Wife's name is Becca...Has two sons and one daughter...Was raised on a family-owned and operated dairy farm in Amherst...Played four years of baseball at Amherst College in Massachusetts, where he graduated in 1991 with a degree in Psychology...Was named a Division III second-team All-American first baseman and first-team All New England first baseman after his senior season...Also holds a Masters of Science in Sport Management from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst...Received the Dr. Freddie Fu Sports Leadership Award at the 79th Annual Dapper Dan Dinner and Sports Auction this past February 10.

Neal and Pirates President, Frank Coonelly, hosted the first Red, White and Brew event, raising money for Livelikelou.org in 2014.

ASSISTANT
GENERAL MANAGER

GREG SMITH is in his fourth season as Assistant General Manager after spending four years as Pittsburgh's Director of Scouting. He joined the organization on November 7, 2007.

In his current role, Greg provides recommendations to General Manager Neal Huntington regarding personnel, strategic planning and decision making for the Baseball Operations department. He also oversees all scouting efforts and works closely with Scouting Director Joe DelliCarri and the entire scouting staff, including Tyrone Brooks, who manages the professional scouts and Rene Gayo, who directs the International group focusing on the Caribbean.

Smith oversaw four drafts with the Pirates and they were some of the most successful in all of baseball. In 2008, Smith spearheaded the club's First-Year Player Draft efforts and selected Vanderbilt third baseman Pedro Alvarez - who was rated by Baseball America as the "No. 1 prospect" in the draft - with the second pick overall. The Pirates signed 32 of their 50 picks from the 2008 draft and selected 33 players from the college ranks.

Smith and his staff followed up with another strong draft in 2009, signing each of the first 14 selections and 23 overall. In 2010, the Pirates strengthened their pitching depth by selecting a pitcher in 12 of the first 14 rounds. Jameson Taillon, considered by many to be the top high school pitching prospect in the country, was selected first by Smith and his staff in the annual draft. Among the 50 total players drafted by the Pirates in 2010, 27 were signed, including 16 pitchers.

The Pirates had the first overall pick in the 2011 First-Year Player Draft and selected UCLA RHP Gerrit Cole. Cole, who was considered by many publications as one of the best collegiate pitchers available in the 2011 draft, made an immediate impact in his first Major League season with the Pirates in 2013. With their second pick in the 2011 Draft, Smith and his staff selected Texas high school outfielder Josh Bell, a switch-hitter who was committed to playing at the University of Texas before signing with the Pirates. Overall in 2011, the Bucs signed 22 of their 50 draft picks.

Smith is a 25-year scouting veteran, having spent 11 seasons with the Detroit organization, working his last three years (2005-07) as the club's special assignment scout.

In his current role, Larry oversees the day-to-day minor league operations, including the club's seven affiliates in the United States as well as the organization's Academy in the Dominican Republic.

Widely considered one of the best minor league systems in MLB, Baseball America ranked the Pirates as having the top farm system in all of baseball prior to the start of the 2014 season. Broadway and his staff have overseen the growth and production of many of the top players in the game, including current Major Leaguers Gerrit Cole and Gregory Polanco as well as 2014 Florida State League Pitcher-of-the-Year Tyler Glasnow and the league's Player-of-the-Year Josh Bell.

A graduate of Duke University, Broadway was selected by the Montreal Expos in the third round of the 2002 First-Year Player Draft and made his professional debut with the Vermont Expos that summer, homering in his first at bat. Broadway produced one of his finest offensive seasons in 2004, batting .270 and hitting a career-high 22 home runs and knocking in 72 runs with Double-A Harrisburg. For his efforts that season, he entered the 2005 campaign ranked by Baseball America as Washington's second-best prospect and as the Nationals' top hitting prospect by USA Today Sports Weekly.

In his eight minor league seasons (2002-09), Broadway compiled a .272 batting average, going 749-for-2744 with 166 doubles, 12 triples, 104 home runs and 413 RBI in 804 games. He was a member of the South Atlantic League All-Star team in 2003 and the Pacific Coast League All-Star team in 2006. His final season came in 2009 when he played at the Triple-A level within the Pittsburgh organization, making 69 appearances with Indianapolis.

In addition to making 711 appearances at first base, 23 in left field and four in right field during his professional playing career, Broadway recorded a 3.48 ERA (10.1ip/4er) in nine games as a pitcher. [FORBES FIELD]

TODAY

The Honus Wagner statue has had three different "homes" since being dedicated on April 30, 1955. Originally, the Wagner statue was located in Schenley Park, close to the Pirates early home, Forbes Field. It was then moved to Three Rivers Stadium and erected outside Gate C on July 21, 1972.

The statue is now located at the home plate entrance to PNC Park. Honus Wagner's statue was sponsored by the Pittsburgh Professional Baseball Association as a lasting tribute to his character and abilities. Contributions to the statue fund were in amounts ranging from $1,000 to $1.00 and were received from thousands of individuals, organizations and foundations. Names of all contributors were then inscribed on one continuous roll and put in a stainless steel, hermetically-sealed tube before being placed inside the statue.

"No one player has ever brought more honor to the game of baseball than has Honus Wagner," said former Pirates President Bill Benswanger, who served as master of ceremonies at the original statue dedication in 1955.

DID YOU KNOW...

That Bucco Hall-of-Famer Honus Wagner is just one of three players to accumulate at least 3,000 hits, 600 doubles and 500 stolen bases during his career. The other players are Ty Cobb and Paul Molitor.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE

DEDICATED 1994
[THREE RIVERS STADIUM]

TODAY

The Roberto Clemente statue was dedicated on July 8, 1994, to kick off All-Star Week in Pittsburgh. It was originally erected outside Gate A at Three Rivers Stadium and is now located outside the Center Field Gate to PNC Park, a few steps away from the Roberto Clemente Bridge.

The base of the statue is black granite and stainless steel with a diamond set in the center. Glass blocks represent first, second and third base. Beneath the glass is soil from Puerto Rico -- where Roberto first played the game -- Forbes Field and Three Rivers Stadium. The soil is marked as "hallowed ground," a place of transcendence where the past, present and future of baseball meet and to which each individual can bring his or her own memories.

Encircling the diamond and set in the stainless steel is a timeline of Clemente's life. Fifteen inscriptions run counter-clockwise around the diamond, beginning at homeplate and ending somewhere between third base and home. There is space for a 16th inscription, but it remains empty, a reflection of the incomplete circle of Roberto Clemente's life. Susan Wagner sculpted the 12-foot bronze statue of Clemente and L.D. Astorino & Associates, Ltd., served as the architect of the project.

DID YOU KNOW...

That Roberto Clemente led the Major Leagues in hits and batting average during the decade of the 60's. In that 10-year span, Clemente recorded 1,877 hits to top the list, 58 ahead of Hank Aaron (1,819), while producing a .328 batting average.

WILLIE STARGELL

On September 29, 2000, the Pirates announced that a statue of Willie Stargell would be unveiled at the club's new home, PNC Park. The announcement was made during the last weekend of Pittsburgh's final games at Three Rivers Stadium.

Stargell, however, did not live to see the day he would be forever immortalized at the statue unveiling on April 7, 2001. After not being able to attend the unveiling ceremony because of an illness, the Hall-of-Famer passed away in the early morning hours of April 9, the same day PNC Park officially opened its doors to begin a new era of Pirates baseball.

The 12-foot bronze statue stands along Federal Street at the entrance to left field at PNC Park. At the base of the statue is a quote from Stargell: "Last night, coming in from the airport, we came through the tunnel and the city opened up its arms and I felt at home." Also throughout the base of the statue are "Stargell stars," which the Pirates all-time home run leader handed out to his teammates toward the conclusion of his 21-year playing career with Pittsburgh.

DID YOU KNOW...

That Willie Stargell is the all-time home run leader in the 128-year history of the Pirates. He hit a total of 475 homers in his 21-year career – all coming in a Bucco uniform. "Pops" led all National League players with 289 home runs hit over the 10-year span from 1968-1977, trailing only Reggie Jackson (312) for the Major League lead.

BILL MAZEROSKI

As part of the 50th anniversary season of the 1960 World Series Championship, the Pirates announced plans on January 29, 2010, to erect a statue of Hall-of-Fame second baseman Bill Mazeroski.

The 12-foot bronze statue was officially unveiled on September 5, 2010, Mazeroski's birthday, and stands at the end of Mazeroski Way, which is located at the right field entrance to PNC Park. Susan Wagner, who sculpted the Clemente, Stargell and Kiner statues also produced this likeness of Maz.

Mazeroski remains the only player in Major League Baseball history to hit a game-winning home run in Game 7 of a World Series. His blast off New York's Ralph Terry on October 13, 1960, gave the Bucs a 10-9 victory in the deciding game played at Forbes Field in Pittsburgh.

Elected into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2001, the Pirates retired Mazeroski's uniform #9 in 1987. He was a seven-time All-Star and holds numerous Major League record for second basemen, including most seasons leading the league in assists (nine), most double plays in a single season (161 in 1966) and most career double plays (1,707).

DID YOU KNOW...

That Bill Mazeroski holds the Major League record for most seasons (eight) leading the league in double plays and the most double plays turned in one season (161 in 1966). "Maz" still remains the only player in MLB history to hit a game-ending home run in Game Seven of the World Series.

GREG BROWN
PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Greg Brown is in his 22nd season as a radio and television play-by-play announcer with the Pirates. Only Bob Prince (28 years) and Lanny Frattare (33 years) have called more games than Brown, who has described the action of more than 3,300 games in his career behind the mic.

Known for his outgoing personality and passion for the ballclub, Brown has made the phrase "Raise The Jolly Roger" synonymous with a Pirates victory and "Clear The Deck, Cannonball Coming" his signature home run call.

Greg's association with the Pirates began in 1979, when he interned in the Promotions department while attending Point Park College. Following the World Series that year, Brown worked as the clubhouse manager during the Instructional League program in Bradenton, Florida. His 10-year stint in the Bucs front office included work in the Sales, Public Relations and Broadcasting departments. Greg also served as the team's public address announcer during the 1987 campaign. In 1988, he was a sports anchor on WFMJ-TV in Youngstown, OH.

Prior to joining Pittsburgh's broadcast team in 1994, Brown spent five seasons (1989-1993) doing play-by-play and color commentary for the Buffalo Bisons of the American Association (now International League) as well as hosting a sportstalk show on WGR Radio. He also worked as a color analyst and a pre- and post-game show host for the Buffalo Bills of the National Football League for five seasons (1989-93). Also during his time in Buffalo, Greg served as a play-by-play announcer for University of Buffalo basketball on WGR Radio and as a broadcaster for the Empire TV Sports Network.

Brown's dedication for the Pirates extends to his efforts away from the broadcast booth as well. In addition to various off-season appearances in the community and his work on the annual Pirates caravan and PirateFest events, Greg spearheaded the "Gloves for Kids" program, which raised money for much-needed equipment and gloves for youth baseball and softball organizations in underserved areas around the Pittsburgh area. During the course of the season, Brown teams up with broadcast partner Steve Blass and hosts several pre-game receptions for members of the 65 Roses Club, which is part of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

Brown is a native of Washington, D.C. He currently resides in Leet Township with his wife Kim and son Ryan (16).

TIM NEVERETT

Tim Neverett joined the Pittsburgh broadcast team on December 18, 2008 and is now in his seventh season as a radio and television play-by-play announcer with the club.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Neverett spent four years working for FSN Rocky Mountain, where he spent the 2008 campaign serving as both the pre-game and post-game studio host for Colorado Rockies games. During his tenure with FSN Rocky Mountain, Tim also served as a play-by-play announcer for Rockies games, college football, basketball, hockey and lacrosse, as well as arena football and track and field.

Neverett was also one of the original play-by-play and studio voices for the mtn, The Mountain West Conference Sports Network, where he called a number of football and basketball games along with hosting a weekly roundtable studio show. In addition, Tim worked as a weekend talk show host for the nationally syndicated Sporting News Radio Network, where his show was heard on over 160 stations nationwide. He also served as a Sports Talk Host for ESPN 560 in Denver, Colorado, where he was named the 2005 Best Radio Sports-Talk Host by Westword magazine in its annual "Best of Denver" issue.

Neverett also called baseball, softball, basketball and soccer during the 2004 Athens Olympics and 2008 Beijing Olympics. During the 2002 Salt Lake City Olympics and 2006 Olympic Games in Torino he handled play-by-play duties for hockey and numerous skiing events. The multi-national feeds were seen in more than 100 countries.

Prior to his time in Denver, Neverett lived in Las Vegas, where he called games on radio and TV for the Padres and Dodgers Triple-A teams. He also served as the play-by-play voice for Las Vegas' International Hockey League team for five seasons, then added college baseball and football at UNLV to his duties.

Neverett began his baseball broadcasting career in 1985 with Pittsburgh's Double-A affiliate in the Eastern League. At the age of 19, he had the opportunity to fill in calling radio play-by-play of Nashua Pirates games, which led to more innings and ultimately a schedule of games that season.

Tim has three sons; Matthew (20), Kyle (18) and Drew (15). He is a graduate of Emerson College in Boston where he lettered in baseball for four seasons.

STEVE BLASS
COLOR ANALYST

The 2015 season marks Steve Blass' 56th year of involvement with the Pirates and his 30th behind the microphone as a color commentator. He has been associated with the club since signing his first professional contract on June 27, 1960.

For the 11th straight season, Steve will work only those games played at PNC Park. He will continue in his role as an analyst on both radio and TV. Only Lanny Frattare (33 years) has spent more years behind the Pirates microphone than Blass (29 years).

A right-handed pitcher, Blass made his professional debut with Kingsport in 1960 and his Major League debut with the Bucs on May 10, 1964. He joined the big league team permanently in 1966 and went on to pitch a total of 10 seasons in the Majors, compiling a 103-76 record, 57 complete games and 16 shutouts in 282 games (231 starts). Steve ranks seventh on the club's all-time list in strikeouts (896).

In his third full season in the Majors in 1968, Steve went 18-6, leading the league with a .750 winning percentage while posting a 2.12 ERA, 12 complete games and a career-high seven shutouts. His 2.12 ERA ranked fifth in the N.L. as St. Louis' Bob Gibson led the circuit with a 1.12 ERA.

During a five-year span from 1968 thru 1972, Blass was one of the best pitchers in the National League as he compiled a 78-44 record, 50 complete games and a 3.05 ERA. He won a career-high 19 games in 1972 and was named to the National League All-Star team that season.

In the 1971 World Series against the Baltimore Orioles, Blass recorded two complete game victories, allowing only seven hits and two runs in 18 innings of work. He finished second in the voting for World Series MVP behind teammate Roberto Clemente and remains the last National League pitcher to throw a complete game in Game Seven of a World Series.

1971 World Series

After retiring following the 1974 season, Blass remained in the Pittsburgh area and worked in private business, while continuing to do community service for the ballclub.

In 1983, he worked with the legendary Hall of Fame broadcaster Bob Prince on Pirate cable telecasts and was also retained the following year when the cable rights were secured by Home Sports Entertainment. Blass officially joined the Pittsburgh Pirates radio broadcast crew in 1986.

A native of Canaan, CT, Steve and his wife Karen live in Upper St. Clair. They have two sons, David and Christopher, and five grandchildren. In 2002, Steve became the 13th recipient of the "Pride of the Pirates" award, a yearly honor (since 1990) which recognizes a member of the Pirates family who has demonstrated the qualities of sportsmanship, dedication and outstanding character during a lifetime of service.

On September 10, 2009, Steve defied the astronomical odds and recorded a pair of holes-in-one in the same round of golf. According to Golf Digest, the odds of a golfer making two aces in the same round are one in 67 million.

BOB WALK
COLOR ANALYST

Bob Walk is in his 22nd season as a member of the Pirates broadcast crew. He joins Greg Brown as being one of only five men with at least 20 years of service behind the microphone for the Bucs on radio.

The former right-handed pitcher spent 10 of his 14 years pitching in the Major Leagues with Pittsburgh (1984-1993). He compiled a 105-81 lifetime record, which included an 82-61 mark with the Pirates.

Walk's professional career began with Spartanburg in 1977 after he was drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies in the 3rd round of the 1976 June draft. He made his big league debut with the Phillies in 1980 and was the starting pitcher in Game One of the World Series that October against Kansas City.

In the spring of 1981, Walk was dealt to the Atlanta Braves for outfielder Gary Matthews. He spent three seasons in the Atlanta organization before being acquired by Pittsburgh in 1984.

Bob was a 1988 National League All-Star and he posted six straight winning seasons from 1987 to 1992. One of his finest moments in a Pirates uniform came in 1992 when he pitched a 7-1, complete-game victory over the Atlanta Braves in Game Five of the National League Championship Series.

Walk, a native of Newhall, CA, resides in Wexford with his wife Lorrie. They have three sons; Tommy (35), Johnny (33) and Ronny (25). Tommy and his wife, Dominique, are the proud parents of daughters Makayla (12) and Kylie (9). Johnny and his wife, Nikki, welcomed the birth of their first child, son Jake, on 5/16/14.

JOHN WEHNER
COLOR ANALYST

Pittsburgh native John Wehner is in his 11th season as a member of the Pirates broadcast team, having joined the crew prior to the 2005 season. He serves as an analyst on both radio and TV, working all road games and a handful of games played at PNC Park in Pittsburgh.

Entering the 2015 campaign, John has spent a total of 24 seasons in the Pittsburgh organization (1988-1996, 1999-2001 and 2003-2014). Prior to being named to the broadcast team, John spent time as a coach with the Double-A Altoona Curve (2003-2004) after serving the Pirates as a special instructor during spring training in 2002.

He saw his last action in the Major Leagues with the Pirates in 2001. He hit the last home run in the history of Three Rivers Stadium on October 1, 2000 off Chicago's Jon Lieber and also made the final out. In 11 seasons in the Major Leagues, John compiled a .249 batting average, hit four home runs and collected 54 RBI in 461 games. In addition, he shares the Major League record of playing 99 consecutive errorless games at third base (also Jeff Cirillo).

Wehner is a graduate of Pittsburgh's Carrick High School and attended the University of Indiana, where he played baseball for three years. He resides in Cranberry Township, PA, with his wife Brandie and has five children; sons Tyler (23) and Brandon (21) and daughters Hailey (16), Brooke (14) and Hannah (12).

BOB WALK WENT 82-61 IN HIS 10 YEARS WITH PITTSBURGH

JOHN WEHNER HITTING THE FINAL HOME RUN AT THREE RIVERS STADIUM

HISTORY

PITTSBURGH PIRATES TEAM HISTORY

Now in their 129th National League season, the Pittsburgh Pirates own a history filled with World Championships, legendary players and some of baseball's most dramatic games and moments.

HONUS WAGNER

The Pirates' roots in Pittsburgh actually date back to April 15, 1876, when the Pittsburgh Alleghenys brought professional baseball to the city by playing their first game at Union Park. In 1877, the Alleghenys were accepted into the minor-league International Association, but disbanded the following year.

1885 ALLEGHENYS

Baseball returned to Pittsburgh for good in 1882 when the Alleghenys reformed and joined the American Association, a rival of the National League. After the 1886 season, the Kansas City franchise was expelled from the N.L. and Pittsburgh President William A. Nimmick's application for membership was accepted.

On April 30, 1887, the Alleghenys defeated the defending league-champion Chicago White Stockings, 6-2, before a crowd of nearly 10,000 at Recreation Park. The victorious beginning was not an indication of things to come, however, as the team managed to finish higher than fifth only once in the 13 remaining seasons of the century. In 1890, the Alleghenys' roster was demolished when key players jumped to a new rival to the National League — the Players League. They staggered to a club-record 113 losses as the two leagues engaged in a bitter battle over talent.

When the Players League folded after only one season, all players were expected to return to the clubs they played for in 1889. But in 1891 Pittsburgh signed Louis Bierbauer, a second baseman with Brooklyn of the Players League who had spent the previous four seasons with the Philadelphia Athletics. The A's and their American Association brethren immediately accused Pittsburgh of "pirating" Bierbauer away from them. Pittsburgh kept the player and the nickname and became known as the Pirates thereafter.

The fortunes of the Pirates turned in 1900 when the National League reduced its membership from 12 to eight teams. As part of the move, Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the defunct Louisville club, acquired controlling interest of the Pirates. In the largest player transaction in Pirates history, the Hall-of-Fame owner brought 14 players with him from the Louisville roster, including Hall of Famers Honus Wagner, Fred Clarke and Rube Waddell — plus standouts Deacon Phillippe, Chief Zimmer, Claude Ritchey and Tommy Leach. All would play significant roles as the Pirates became the league's dominant franchise, winning pennants in 1901, 1902 and 1903 and a World championship in 1909.

Wagner, dubbed "The Flying Dutchman," was the game's premier player during the decade, winning seven batting titles and leading the majors in hits (1,850) and RBI (956) from 1900-1909. One of the pioneers of the game, Dreyfuss is sometimes called "The Father of the World Series" because he challenged Henry Killilea, the owner of the American League champion Boston Americans, to a post-season playoff in 1903 to determine who was baseball's best team. On October 1, 1903, Phillippe defeated the legendary Cy Young, 7-3, in the first World Series game ever played. Boston, however, later emerged as the Series winner, overcoming a three-games-to-one deficit to win the best-of-nine competition, five games to three.

The Pirates finished as runner-up three times in the next five years before getting another shot at a World Series title in 1909. The Bucs won a club-record 110 games that year with three pitchers — Howie Camnitz (25), Vic Willis (22) and Lefty Leifield (19) combining for 66 victories. The Series pitted the league's batting champions — Wagner and Detroit's Ty Cobb against each other, but rookie pitcher Babe Adams, who was 12-3 during the regular season, emerged as the Series hero for the Pirates.

While Camnitz, Willis and Leifield failed to win a game, Adams won three, including a six-hit shutout in the seventh and deciding game. It was the last of four titles the Pirates would win under Clarke, who managed the club until 1915.

The 1909 season also marked the beginning of a new era in ballparks as the Pirates christened Forbes Field on June 30 that year. Since 1891, the Pirates had called Exposition Park — which was located on virtually the same site as Three Rivers Stadium — their home. Described as the "Hialeah of Ballparks" when it opened, Forbes Field would remain the home of the Pirates for six decades and would host many great moments.

Pittsburgh sank to the league's second division for most of the next decade, but by the early 1920's — with an influx of outstanding talent which included future Hall of Famers Pie Traynor, Kiki Cuyler, Rabbit Maranville and Max Carey — Pittsburgh was again a contender. After three straight third-place finishes from 1922 to 1924, the Pirates won the N.L. title by eight and a half games over the second-place New York Giants in 1925.

The Series matched Pittsburgh against the Washington Senators, who jumped out to a three-games-to-one lead. The Pirates, however, bounced back to win the final three games and the Series. Their miraculous comeback included a 15-hit pounding of Hall of Famer Walter "Big Train" Johnson in Game Seven.

In 1926, a rookie named Paul Waner joined the Bucs and batted .336. A year later, his brother Lloyd joined him and belted out 223 hits for a club rookie record .355 average and the Pirates were again National League champions. Paul, who was nicknamed "Big Poison" — batted .300 or better 14 times, captured three batting titles and collected 200 or more hits in eight different seasons. He was named the league's Most Valuable Player in 1927 and went on to compile 3,152 hits and a .333 career batting average. Lloyd — who was tagged "Little Poison" — hit .300 or better in 10 of his first 12 seasons, compiled a career mark of .316 and accumulated 2,450 hits. Both were elected to the Hall of Fame.

RALPH KINER

The 1927 World Series featured the Pirates against New York's famed "Murderer's Row" with Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig who swept Pittsburgh in four straight games. The next 33 years, Pirate fans went without a pennant winner, although they were not denied their share of great players and great moments.

The Waners were consistently among baseball's premier hitters during the 1930's with Paul amassing more hits (1,959) during the decade than any player in baseball. Traynor was one of the era's best all-around players and is generally regarded as one of the finest third basemen ever to play the game. Shortstop Arky Vaughan topped the .300-mark in each of his 10 seasons with the Pirates (1932-1941) and his .385 average in 1935 has gone unequalled by any National League performer. He, too, is enshrined at Cooperstown.

Hall of Famer Ralph Kiner won or shared the N.L. home run title in each of the seven seasons that he wore a Pirates uniform (1946-52) — which is a streak that has never been matched in either league. In 1956, Pirate first baseman Dale Long hit home runs in a record eight straight games between May 19th and May 28th (that mark was matched by Don Mattingly in 1987 and Ken Griffey Jr. in 1993). Three years later, Harvey Haddix hurled what many consider the greatest game ever pitched when he retired 36 straight Milwaukee Braves hitters over 12 innings on May 26, 1959. The same year, ElRoy Face won 17 straight games in relief.

BILL MAZEROSKI

Though the Pirates failed to finish higher than seventh from 1950 through 1957, the foundation for another championship was being put into place. Standout players were added throughout the decade, including 2001 Hall-of-Fame inductee Bill Mazeroski, Dick Groat, Vernon Law, Bob Friend, Bill Virdon, Face and Hall-of-Fame right fielder Roberto Clemente.

In 1956, Pirate owner John Galbreath hired Joe L. Brown as general manager. With the club languishing in last place at 36-67 midway through the 1957 campaign, Brown promoted coach Danny Murtaugh to field manager. Within three seasons, the Bucs were again champions of the National League and again matched against the powerful New York Yankees in the World Series. This time the Bronx Bombers featured Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE

The 1960 World Series remains one of the most incredible post-season encounters ever on record. The Yankees won Game Two, Game Three and Game Six by a combined score of 38-3, but the Pirates used great pitching, defense and timely hitting to stretch the Series to a seventh game at Forbes Field. Pittsburgh took a 9-7 lead into the ninth — thanks to Hal Smith's three-run homer in the eighth — but the Yankees came up with two runs in the top of the ninth to tie the score. The game and the Series ended, however, in the bottom of the ninth as Mazeroski belted what is perhaps the most dramatic home run in baseball history off Ralph Terry. Mazeroski was the only player in baseball history ever to end a World Series with a home run until Joe Carter of Toronto accomplished the feat in Game Six of the 1993 Fall Classic.

During the 1960's, Clemente established himself among the game's elite players. He collected more hits (1,877) than anyone during the decade and would go on to reach the 3,000-hit plateau in 1972. During his marvelous career, he topped the .300 mark 13 times, won four batting titles and was named the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1966.

The changing of the decade also brought along a change to the home ballpark of the Pirates. After playing in cavernous Forbes Field since June 30, 1909, the Bucs began play at a multi-purpose stadium located at the confluence of Pittsburgh's three rivers. The aptly named Three Rivers Stadium played host to its first game on July 16, 1970, with the Pirates losing a 3-2 decision to the Reds.

During the 1970's, the Pirates were again among baseball's premier teams. In that 10-year span, they won six division titles and finished as low as third only once. In the first 25 years of divisional play, the Bucs won more games (2,100) and finished first more often (nine times) than any other N.L. East club. The Pirates put together a 2,100-1,878 record during that period (.528 winning %).

The Pirates captured two more World Championships during the 1970's. Their 1971 victory over Baltimore was a showcase for Clemente, who batted .414 and received the Series MVP award.

In 1979, the Pirates became only the fourth team in history to erase a three-games-to-one deficit when they again bested the Orioles in seven games. Hall of Famer Willie Stargell took home MVP honors — as he did during the regular season — with a .400 batting average, three home runs (including the Series' deciding blow in Game Seven) and seven RBI. It was a fitting conclusion to the decade for Stargell, who was the leading home run hitter of the 1970's (296). While the Pirates brought two world championships back to Pittsburgh during the 1970s, the Pittsburgh Steelers also came to prominence. The Steelers won four Super Bowls during the 70s, which, coupled with the Pirates success, helped garner Pittsburgh the "City of Champions" label.

THREE RIVERS STADIUM

On October 2, 1985, the Galbreath family and Warner Communications sold the club to Pittsburgh Associates; a group of private investors who were committed to keeping the team in Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh Associates was made up of 10 investors representing six corporations, three individuals and Carnegie Mellon University. The group included the Aluminum Company of America, Mellon Bank, PNC Financial Corporation, PPG Industries, USX Corporation, Westinghouse Electric Company, Eugene and Raymond Litman, John McConnell and Harvey M. Walken.

After several lean years in the mid-eighties, the Pirates returned to contention in 1988 when they finished in second place and broke the club's 28-year-old attendance mark.

With players like Barry Bonds, Doug Drabek, Bobby Bonilla and Andy Van Slyke, Pittsburgh started the decade of the 1990's in fine fashion, winning the N.L. East title three straight years. The Bucs became the first team to win three straight division titles since the Philadelphia Phillies accomplished the feat between 1976 and 1978. Bonds captured MVP honors in 1990 and 1992, while Drabek won the Cy Young award in '90. Manager Jim Leyland took home N.L. Manager-of-the-Year honors in both 1990 and 1992. In his 11 seasons at the helm, Leyland won 849 games, placing him third on the club's All-Time Managerial win list.

Pittsburgh was on the brink of a World Series berth in both the 1991 and 1992 season, but the Pirates lost the seventh and deciding game each year to the Atlanta Braves. In 1992, Pittsburgh came within three outs of the Fall Classic. But in the bottom of the ninth inning at Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium, the Braves triumphed with three runs and won the game 3-2 and the series, four-games-to-three.

PIRATES LOGO HISTORY

The people of Pittsburgh and the surrounding Tri-State area responded well to the club's success in the nineties as the Pirates drew in excess of two million fans in both 1990 and 1991.

A crowd of 59,568, the largest ever to watch a professional baseball game in Pittsburgh, witnessed the 65th Major League Baseball All-Star Game, played at Three Rivers Stadium on July 12, 1994. In one of the most thrilling All-Star Games ever to be played, the National League prevailed over the American League in extra frames. Fred McGriff helped send the game into extra innings when he delivered a two-run, pinch-hit home run off Lee Smith in the bottom of the ninth inning that tied the score. After the American League failed to score in the top of the 10th inning, the National League broke its six-game losing streak when Tony Gwynn scored on a double by Moises Alou.

A new chapter of Pirate history began on February 14, 1996, when Kevin McClatchy and his group of investors purchased the storied franchise from Pittsburgh Associates.

Picked by many publications to finish last in 1997, the Pirates remained in the division race until the final weekend of the season and the club was named USA Today's "Organization of the Year" at the conclusion of the season. Major League Baseball also underwent a change in 1997 with the birth of Interleague play. That season, the Pirates welcomed the Kansas City Royals to Three Rivers Stadium on June 13 for the club's first interleague matchup, which Pittsburgh won by a score of 5-3.

FRANCISCO CORDOVA AFTER THEIR COMBINED 10-INNING
NO-HITTER IN 1997

While the Bucs contended for the division during the entire 1997 season, one of the most memorable moments of the season came on July 12. That night, pitchers Francisco Cordova and Ricardo Rincon thrilled Pirates fans with the only combined, extra-inning no-hitter in major league history. The game ended in the bottom of the 10th inning when Mark Smith delivered a three-run home run for the 3-0 win.

The 2000 season brought an end to a full century of great moments, a 100-year period which began with three straight National League pennants and ended with an aura of hope and dreams of more championships to come. With a new home on the horizon, the Bucs said goodbye to Three Rivers Stadium with their final game ever played there on October 1, 2000. Three no-hitters, Clemente's 3000th hit, two All-Star Games, countless playoff games, two World Championships and endless summer evenings can be associated with no other place in the history of Pittsburgh than Three Rivers Stadium.

The Pirates closed out their 30-year tenure at Three Rivers Stadium with a 10-9 loss to the Chicago Cubs in the final game of what was the club's home since 1970. Pittsburgh native John Wehner smacked the final home run in the history of the ballpark off Chicago's Jon Lieber. Ironically, Wehner also grounded out to third base for the final out ever at Three Rivers. With the loss, Pittsburgh closed out Three Rivers Stadium with a record of 1,324 wins and 1,082 losses.

In the early morning of February 11, 2001, Pittsburgh bid farewell to Three Rivers when the home of the Pirates and Steelers was imploded.

PNC Park officially opened its gates on April 9, 2001. Regarded by many as the best ballpark ever built, PNC Park is an intimate two-level structure which offers all fans dramatic views of the downtown skyline as well as the natural grass playing surface. After touring all 30 major league ballparks during the summer of 2003, ESPN.com ranked PNC Park as the best in baseball.

The anticipation and joy of a new ballpark turned to sorrow, when on the morning of the first regular season game at PNC Park, a beloved member of the Pirates family was lost when Willie Stargell passed away on April 9, 2001.

Despite suffering 100 losses for just the seventh time in club history in 2001, fans came out in record numbers as the Bucs played in front of 19 sellouts and a total of 2,436,139 customers during the inaugural season at PNC Park.

On June 25, 2002, the Pirates registered the 9,000th win in the history of the franchise with a 4-1 victory over the Montreal Expos, thus becoming just the fourth club to produce 9,000 wins.

The Pirates have had a long list of sluggers in their history and Brian Giles added his name to that list during his five seasons in a Bucco uniform. He hit 30 or more home runs in each of his first four seasons with the club, just one of three Pirates to hit 30 or more long balls in four consecutive years

BRIAN GILES

(also Hall-of-Famers Ralph Kiner and Willie Stargell). His 165 home runs with Pittsburgh rank sixth in club history.

Catcher Jason Kendall spent each of his first nine big league seasons in a Pittsburgh uniform after being selected in the first round of the 1992 June draft. In that time, he made 1,205 appearances behind the plate. That figure ranks first all-time in the annals of the club, 50 games ahead of George Gibson, who caught for the Bucs from 1906 thru 1915. Kendall surpassed Gibson's 90-year-old record in Los Angeles on August 3, 2004.

For the first time in team history a Pittsburgh player captured Rookie-of-the-Year honors as outfielder Jason Bay took home the honors in 2004. A two-time National League All-Star, Bay was a fan favorite at the 2006 All-Star Game in Pittsburgh.

The national spotlight shined once again on the city of Pittsburgh during the 2006 season as the Major League Baseball All-Star Game was played at PNC Park, marking the fifth time the event has been held in the Steel City. The American League won a dramatic 3-2 decision in the Midsummer Classic as the Pirates became the first team in baseball history to host the All-Star Game in three different venues.

Also in 2006, Freddy Sanchez added his name to the club's record list of 25 batting champions as his .344 average led the National League. Sanchez banged out 200 hits in 2006 and led the N.L. with 53 doubles while being named to his first of two All-Star teams.

On January 18, 2007, Bob Nutting officially assumed control of the ballclub, thus becoming only the sixth principal owner in the Pirates storied history. Following a deep look into the team's operations, Nutting has built a fundamentally different organization by introducing Frank Coonelly as the team's new president on September 13, 2007 and, in-turn, Neal Huntington as the team's new general manager on September 25, 2007. From there the new leadership team has made significant changes to each of the three major areas – Major League manager/coaching staff, Scouting Director and Farm Director, with the goal of building an organization that can consistently compete.

Since 2009, fans have witnessed the debuts of first-round draft picks Andrew McCutchen, Pedro Alvarez, Neil Walker, Gerrit Cole and Tony Sanchez, along with appearances of many other young players, including Starling Marte and Tony Watson.

Clint Hurdle was named manager of the Pirates on November 15, 2010, and in his first three seasons at the helm, the inspirational leader of the club has posted a 245-241 record.

HOSTING THE ALL-STAR GAME

The Pirates have hosted the MLB All-Star Game five times since it's inception in 1933:

1944	National	7-1
1959	National	5-4
1974	National	7-2

The 2012 Pirates were in first place (alone or tied) a total of 15 days and were over .500 every day from June 3 through September 18.

In addition, Bucco fans showed their great support of the club in 2012 as the Pirates played host to 17 sellouts during the season.

McCutchen emerged as one of the best players in the game, winning a Gold Glove and Silver Slugger award in 2012 while finishing third in the National League MVP voting.

In 2013 the Pirates returned to prominence in the league as they won 94 regular season games and appeared in the postseason for the first time since 1992.

The Pirates, who went 19-9 during the month of May and 17-9 in June, placed five players on the All-Star team - the most since also having five selected to the 1972 Midsummer Classic. Along with three-time All-Star Andrew McCutchen, Pedro Alvarez, Jason Grilli, Jeff Locke and Mark Melancon represented the Bucs at the 2013 All-Star Game, played at Citi Field in New York.

Led by 16-game winner and the National League Comeback Player-of-the-Year Francisco Liriano, the Bucco pitching staff posted 16 shutouts in 2013 and ranked third in the N.L. with a 3.26 ERA; the best mark by the pitching staff since 1984. Grilli (33) and Melancon (16) picked up 49 of the club-record and National League leading 55 saves.

The offense was led by McCutchen, who took home N.L. MVP honors in 2013 after hitting .317 with 97 runs, 38 doubles, 21 home runs, 84 RBI and 27 stolen bases in 157 games. McCutchen became the sixth player in club history to win the MVP award, joining Dick Groat (1960), Roberto Clemente (1966), Dave Parker (1978), Willie Stargell (1979) and Barry Bonds (1990, 1992).

Silver Slugger award winner Pedro Alvarez shared the league lead in home runs in 2013, as the young slugger smacked 36 long balls to become the first Bucco to lead or share the N.L. lead in homers since Willie Stargell did so with 44 in 1973.

After winning 94 games during the 2013 regular season and finishing second in the N.L. Central division standings, the Pirates defeated the Reds in the Wild Card playoff game, played before a sold out crowd at PNC Park on October 1.

The Pirates had a two-games-to-one lead in the best of five Division Series playoff against the Cardinals, but dropped the final two games to bring an end to their magical 2013 campaign.

The Pirates produced a record 23 sellouts during the 2013 regular season before playing in front of three standing-room only crowds in the postseason.

Clint Hurdle also took home some hardware following the 2013 season as he was named the N.L. Manager-of-the Year; just the second Bucco skipper to win the award.

For the second straight season in 2014, the Pirates reached the postseason while setting an all-time single-season attendance record, drawing 2,442,564 fans and averaging 30,155 for their 81 home dates. The Bucs also posted 23 regular season sellouts for the second consecutive year and set an individual game record with a standing-room only crowd of 40,629 for the Wild Card Game vs. San Francisco on October 1.

2013 WILD CARD CHAMPIONS

2014: SINGLE-SEASON ATTENDANCE RECORD: 2,442,564

With a combination of the second-best OBP in the National League (.333) and a pitching staff that posted the second-lowest ERA (2.94) over the final two months of the season, the Pirates won 88 games in 2014, finishing 2.0 games behind St. Louis in the Central division race.

Josh Harrison finished second in the N.L. batting race while Andrew McCutchen once again put up MVP-type numbers, leading the Pirates to the postseason in back-to-back seasons for just the sixth time in franchise history.

The Pirates went 51-30 at home in 2014, setting a record for most wins in a season at PNC Park. The final game was played on October 1 as eventual World Series MVP Madison Bumgarner shut down the Bucs as the Giants began their run toward the championship.

McKechnie Field, the Spring Training home of the Pirates, is the oldest stadium still used for Spring Training and the second-oldest in the Florida State League. It is also the third oldest stadium currently used by a Major League team.

Only Fenway Park (1912) and Wrigley Field (1914) are older.

PITTSBURGH PIRATES UNIFORM HISTORY

1900-1910: The jersey of this period was short-sleeved with no trim except for a dark blue collar. Stockings were dark blue with red stripes and the cap was blue with a white "P". A "PBC" monogram signifying Pittsburgh Baseball Club was also added to the left sleeve later in the decade.

1910-1920: The regular collar was replaced by the short, stand-up "cadet" style with a button collar. Pinstriped material was also introduced. As the team nickname became more accepted, "Pirates" was displayed in capital letters down the button lapel (1912). The cadet-style collar soon gave way to a tapered collar extension, but the button lapel remained solid dark blue with white buttons and a "P-P" straddling the top button (1913-14). Later in this decade, the cap had piping and also included a "P" in white or red.

1921-1932: Standard white uniforms were worn at home and gray on the road with simple graphics and solid colors. The 1925 & '27 championship teams wore the standard capital "P" on its sleeves but not on the jersey. A red "P" was also placed on the solid blue cap.

1933-1937: The Pirate uniforms brightened up considerably with added colors, trim features and graphics. The name "Pirates" was placed across the jersey in an arc of fancy red and blue capital letters. Solid blue belts were included and piping trim on the uniforms included blue and red.

1938-1939: The name "Pirates" appeared on the jersey in script lettering with underline flourish.

1940-1941: The uniform abandons the traditional "P" or "Pirates" for an emblem of an actual buccaneer. The patch was placed on the left breast of both the home and road jerseys. This was the first time an emblem of the team's nickname was ever worn on a game jersey.

1938

1940-1944: A zipper front replaced the button-down jersey.

1942-1947: Team adds an arc "Pirates" (home) and "Pittsburgh" (away).

1948: The team replaced the traditional blue and red with the present day black and gold. The script "Pirates" and "Pittsburgh" was replaced with the block lettering that you still see today. The cap became solid black with a gold "P."

1940

1954: The word "Pittsburgh" is removed from the road jersey, and replaced with "Pirates."

1957: The Pirates became the second team to begin wearing sleeveless jerseys.

1962: Numbers were introduced on the front of the home and road jerseys and have been there ever since.

1948

1970: The Pirates became the first major league club to adopt the new double-knit fabric uniforms, which they debuted at the first game at the new Three Rivers Stadium in July. The jersey became a pullover with no button or zipper. The pants contained a built-in sash belt. The cap crown was mustard yellow with a black bill. Within two years, nearly every other club was wearing a double-knit uniform.

1957

1977

1990

2001-2008

2013

1976: The Pirates, as well as other clubs, commemorate the National League's centennial by wearing the old striped, pill-box style caps. The Bucs wore yellow caps with a black bill and black stripes.

1977-1979: Abandoned were the traditional white and gray uniforms in exchange for combinations of white, gold, black iand pinstriping. The caps became black with yellow stripes. Players' last names appear on the back of the jerseys for the first time.

1985: The Pirates returned to the basic white and gray uniform.

1987: The Pirates replaced the striped cap in favor of the traditional standard black round crown type.

1990: A script "Pittsburgh" is added to the gray road uniform for the first time since 1952.

1995: The Pirates return to button-down jerseys and belted pants.

1995: Going back to a more traditional look, the Pirates removed the names from the back of the jerseys.

1996: That change lasted only one year, as the Pirates return the names to the back of the jerseys.

1997: The organization introduces a complete new look by wearing an alternate home jersey as well as bringing the color "red" back into the uniform for the first time since 1946.

2001: With the opening of PNC Park, the club enters a "New Era of Baseball." The team re-introduces the sleeveless jersey as part of both the home and road uniform. The Pirates also become the first team ever to wear a cap with a red underbill (cap worn with the alternate home jersey only).

2005: The Pirates re-introduce pinstripes to the uniform. The alternate uniforms are worn on Sunday home games.

2007: The club introduces a red, sleeveless jersey to be worn on selected home dates.

2009: The Pirates re-introduce sleeves to their home and road jerseys and added a black alternate jersey. The sleeveless pinstriped jersey are worn on Sundays through the end of 2010.

2013: The club introduces an alternate uniform mustard gold cap which will be worn on Sunday home games throughout the season. The pullover style jersey, similar to the one from the early 1970's, will be made of "Cool Base" fabric for improved breathability and increased range of motion. The front of the jersey will feature black "Pirates" lettering outlined in mustard gold on the chest, as well as the player's number below the lettering on the left hand side of the jersey. The players' names have been added to the back of the jerseys to go along with their number, as opposed to the 1970 jerseys that did not feature the names. Black, white and mustard gold piping will be featured on the jersey's collar and sleeves, as well as on the waistband of the pants.

2015: The club introduces camouflage jerseys to be worn on selected home dates.

DID YOU KNOW...?

That Dick Groat was named the National League MVP in 1960 after leading the league in batting (.325) and knocking in 50 runs in 138 games for the World Champs. He also became the first right-handed Pirates hitter to win the batting title since Honus Wagner in 1911.

From 1956 to 1962, Groat teamed with second baseman Bill Mazeroski to give Pittsburgh one of the game's strongest middle infields; he led the N.L. in double plays a record five times, in putouts four times and in assists twice.
